

World Food Day Poster Contest

If you're aged between 5 and 19, we want to hear from you! Use your imagination and create a poster showing a world where no one is left behind, and everyone has access to affordable, nutritious food.

Today, the world faces many challenges like poverty and hunger, climate change, conflict and inequality. Global challenges need global solutions! We can all take action for a sustainable future where every person counts.

Submit your entry by filling out the form on our website before
4 November 2022.

Activity Book

Discover how you can help build a better, food secure future where no one is left behind. Read the World Food Day Activity Book and learn about this year's theme before entering the Poster Contest.

World Food Day

Calling all school chefs!

Do you eat school meals? Who prepares them and how do they make them? Talk to the chefs at your school and ask them to join the World Food Day call for videos and school food experiences! Learn more about how to participate here.

Junior World Food Day

After a successful first edition, the Junior World Food Day will be celebrated for a second time this October. Last year, European Space Agency astronaut and FAO Goodwill Ambassador, Thomas Pesquet surprised us with a message from outer space! This year, he's back on Earth and will join other exciting guest speakers for an event packed with fun and guaranteed to inspire action!

Learn about FAO

Stay tuned for the launch of the Discover FAO web app for World Food Day! With this new web app you can learn about FAO, its mandate and history, as well as about the meeting rooms and artwork at FAO headquarters... in multiple languages! There will even be an option to take a selfie using a virtual background of FAO headquarters!

There's more! Check out our Group Visits website to find out about our group tours.
